

Renaissance.
Diverse Canadian Voices

Publisher:

Renaissance

Genre:

Young Adult paranormal mystery

Publication date:

September 15 2021

Pages:

280

Formats:

Paperback, ebook

ISBN:

Paperback: 978-1-990086-06-9

ebook: 978-1-990086-17-5

List price:

Paperback 19.99CAD

Ebook: 4.99CAD

Contact:

Nathan Fréchette

pressesrenaissancepress@gmail.com

pressesrenaissancepress.ca

819-230-8968

@renaissancepre1

Éric has had an eclectic career which ranges from casino dealer to canal boat captain to radio station DJ. Since 2009, he's worked as a layout artist and desktop publisher for the federal government. During his off time he works as a freelance layout artist for various Canadian-based authors and publishers, roasts gourmet flavoured coffee, runs several pen-and-paper role-playing games, writes, and helps run JenEric-Designs.ca (Home of the TravellingTARDIS.com).

He lives in Ottawa, Ontario with his wife, daughter, and son.

COFFEE SHOP BETWEEN THE 'VERSES

ÉRIC DESMARAIS

Jackie sometimes likes to have conversations with the characters, and as he reads five novellas in the small Ontario town of Baker...

In The Ridiculous Adventures of Felix Felicitous, the grumpy Felix is thrown into an adventure through time, despite his protestations.

In Only Human, Rachel has accidentally signed up for the University of Monsters.

In Wargrave Island, Inspector Riko Dulac has to find out who's killing all her former high school classmates before there's no one left.

In Database of the Ageless Kings, Sophia rebuilds an alien ship, only to find the galactic prince still inside.

In Devices of Desire, follow Artemis, Diana, and Ezekiel as they navigate secret identities, demons, and love in the kingdom of Cillian.

Are the characters Jackie is talking with real? Is he just talking to himself? Or is something else going on?

